If you could invent anything, what would it be?

Draw your invention here, and then describe it below.

_____________________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________________________
If you would like to share your child’s creative answers with our audience, just scan or photograph the completed worksheets. Then, post them on Facebook in a public post and tag the Foundation for Appalachian Ohio, or send them to info@ffao.org.